KEYWORDS

Human-AI Interaction; AI Audits and Evaluations; Algorithmic Justice; Social Computing; AI Literacy and Youth

APPOINTMENTS

2022-curr. University of Pennsylvania, Raj & Neera Singh Term Assistant Professor Department of Computer & Information Science (primary)
Annenberg School for Communication (secondary)

2025-curr. Penn Center on Media, Technology, and Democracy (MEDIATED), Faculty Advisor

2021-2022 Stanford University, Postdoctoral Scholar
Center for Philanthropy and Civil Society (PI: Nathaniel Persily, Stanford Law)

EDUCATION

2015-2021 Stanford University
Ph.D. Computer Science
Advisors: James Landay (Computer Science), Jeff Hancock (Communication)

2018 Stanford University
M.Sc. Computer Science

2011-2015 Brown University
B.A. Computer Science with honors
B.A. Science, Technology, and Society

GRANTS

2025-28 Ford Foundation | Civil Rights AI Audits (with Sorelle Friedler)
Core support for computer scientists to provide technical support for AI civil rights audits and associated research ($450,000)

2025 National Science Foundation | CAREER
Advancing Methods for Analyzing the Effects of Targeted Advertising ($670,000)

2025 Google Research | Trust, Safety, Security, and Privacy
Developing an AI Literacy Toolkit to Empower Youth as Algorithmic Content Consumers ($100,000)

2025 Spencer Foundation | Rapid Response Bridge Funding (with Yasmin Kafai)
Auditing Machine Learning Applications for Algorithmic Justice with Computer Science High School Students and Teachers ($13,561)

2024 National Science Foundation | ITEST (Innovative Technology Experiences for Students and Teachers) (with Yasmin Kafai)
Auditing Machine Learning Applications for Algorithmic Justice with Computer Science High School Students and Teachers ($499,943 — Terminated by DOGE, April 2025)

2023 National Science Foundation | RAPID (with Yasmin Kafai)
Engaging High School Youth in Algorithmic Justice Through Audits of Designed and Everyday Machine Learning Applications ($200,000)

2021 Stanford Human-Centered AI (HAI) | Seed Grant (with Jeff Hancock)
In(advert)ent: Investigating and countering disparities in race and gender representation in online advertising ($64,000)

2021 Brown Institute for Media Innovation | Magic Grant (with Jeff Hancock)
In(advert)ent: Investigating and countering disparities in race and gender representation in online advertising ($50,000)

2020 Stanford Human-Centered AI (HAI) | Seed Grant (PI Jeff Hancock)
Explainable AI for All: A System for Studying Interpretable AI in Online Media Consumption ($75,000)
